THANKS!

Despite many fair promises to myself and to the Association the handbook is late again in reaching you. 'Twas ever thus with all my undertakings, and the blame is entirely mine. The Alumnae have been most kind about helping me with information and material and I wish to take this opportunity to acknowledge the many newsy letters I have received since the publication of the last handbook. Please don't think that they were not appreciated just because I did not have time to answer them. If you will be as kind next year about sending in your bits of knowledge I will see that they reach the hands of the unfortunate one whose affliction it will be to assemble the material for this widely-circulated piece of reading matter. Thank you for your letters!

THE SECRETARY.

ANNUAL ALUMNAE MEETING, 1923

Members of the Association of Alumnae and Former Students of Sweet Briar College gathered for the annual meeting in the Academic Building of the college on June 4, 1923.

President Margaret McVey presided and opened the meeting with a few words of welcome to the class of 1923. This, the latest graduating class, has added materially to the numbers of alumnae and, looking back over the college records of 1923, the Association seems justified in expecting a great deal of activity and support from its new members.

Reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were read and accepted. The mailing list for last year's handbook showed that the number of active members on the roll was approximately the same as the year before. It was interesting, though not entirely encouraging to note that the graduates prior to 1919 were more active in Association work and interest than those since that time.

It was for the purpose of stimulating interest and activity among the Alumnae that Sweet Briar Day was originated. Where ever the day was observed excellent results were reportd. Miss Case made a report from the always progressive Cleveland chapter, which this year raised $550.00 for the Association as a result of the plans made at the Sweet Briar Day meeting. Miss Newkirk reported a luncheon and reorganization of the chapter in Philadelphia. Richmond had a luncheon with an unusually large attendance to its credit—also a benefit card party. There was not time to hear from any more chapters, but it is known that Chicago, with surrounding suburbs and towns, Milwaukee and Washington all made full and adequate plans for Sweet Briar Day and were rewarded with very gratifying results.

For the benefit of those living in places where chapters did not exist or needed reorganization, organization was discussed. It was decided that the following form was the one most valuable to local chapters—President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and a

Chairman of Publicity. The incoming Alumnae were urged to take an active part in the work of the various local chapters.

A motion was made and carried to change the name of the Association from THE ASSOCIATION OF ALUMNAE AND FORMER STUDENTS OF SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE to THE SWEET BRIAR ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION. The old name, besides being awkward in length, made a distinction between the graduates and non-graduates, which distinction was not to be found in the titles of other alumnae associations. Also, since Sweet Briar's position in the world of education had become so definitely established it did not seem feasible to continue the use of the word college in the title of the Association.

In the absence of Frances Engemen, Elizabeth Taylor presented the Student Drive for the consideration of the alumnae. The drive originated among the students at May Day and is for the purpose of raising $100,000.00 to build a combined gymnasium and little theatre. The plans, which had been drawn by an expert architect, father of one of the students, were exhibited and found adequate and practical. With the facilities offered by the plans for the new theatre the students expressed hopes of building dramatics at Sweet Briar to the point where plays produced would be of sufficient excellence to be presented in Lynchburg and in Richmond. Sweet Briar would also be able to maintain its position in the athletic world which the condition of the present gymnasium has so seriously threatened. Because most of the alumnae had pledged to the Endowment campaign in 1919, little material support could be promised by the Association. However, the $650.00 which was voted last year to the gym-shack Dr. Harley was planning, was turned over to the Student Drive fund, as Dr. Harley had abandoned her plan in favor of the more recent one.

Announcement was made that the Southern Women's Educational Alliance was to hold a meeting in New York at the home of Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson and Fanny Ellsworth ('21) was appointed to represent Sweet Briar at this time.

A discussion followed on the subject of the Tau Phi —a literary society which had been formed among the students. Because of some remarks heard by the Alumnae, and because of the Greek name, initiations, and limited elected membership, fear was expressed that there was danger of secret societies growing up in the college. A committee from the alumnae was appointed to investigate Tau Phi and a later report announced that the committee was quite satisfied with the society and with its position in the life of the college.

There being no further business the meeting was given over to Dr. McVea, who had some very interesting things to tell the alumnae.

The first matter which Dr. McVea explained was one of great importance to the college—the Sweet Briar Inn. The tea-house committee had found that it would be possible to build if a certain amount of money could be procured for a short time and to meet the situation Dr. McVea and Mr. Manson had signed a note for $1,000.00. Ending June 1, 1923 the cost of the Inn for the year, including $718.00 deducted for scholarships, was $10,000.58. Of this amount $650.00 went for adequate pantry facilities and $2,500.00 for furnishings. The building work itself was done by Messrs. Bob and Jim Watts.

The total enrollment for 1922-23 was 326, though there were never more than 318 students at one time. The expectation was to accommodate 25 additional students in 1923-24. This was to be effected by housing some students at the Inn and some in the rooms formerly occupied by the waitresses, who were to have a dormitory to themselves.

Regarding the standard of the college Dr. McVea stated that one condition only was allowed in entrance and that the students came better prepared each year, only three or four out of the 150 Freshmen having entered without Latin. Further regarding the standard that the salaries of the women professors had been raised to equal those of the men and that by having done this Sweet Briar was meeting the last requirement for membership in the American Association of University Women.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY T. CORLEY, Sec.

STATEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT

In the history of the Alumnae Association the past year has not been spectacular in its progress. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer included in this booklet will give you an idea of the actual workings of the Association, so all that is left to the President is to call attention to the more striking activities.

The active membership is still short of seven hundred and the Association feels keenly the lack of support from the individual Alumnae. Our Treasurer showed by actual figures that the number of members of each class who paid their dues to the Association was getting smaller each year—for instance ten in class of 1920 and five in class of 1923. To counteract this influence the Treasurer is mailing a special letter to each Alumna who has failed to pay her dues, telling her how many of her Class-mates have paid and how her class figures with others in per cent of delinquency.

Sweet Briar Day for a beginning did quite a bit of work in arousing interest in dead or inactive chapters. Since keeping the chapters busy is one of the biggest problems of the Association, no effort should be spared to make Sweet Briar Day a huge success. In fifty cities and towns plans were sent to a chairman asking that a luncheon be set for December 28, inviting all present students as well as Alumnae to attend. This was to be a get-together meeting and if no chapter officers were in existence, create them according to the scheme sent out. In cities where it was given a fair trial, Sweet Briar Day proved a great help to the Association. If You did not try it last year—give it a chance this year. Don't forget December 28.

Finals 1923 saw the largest number of Alumnae returning for reunions. Again the older classes were far ahead of the more recent ones—1913 with four, 1918 with eight, and 1922 with two. Of course we know that 1922 has not forgotten her Alma Mater, but they have not begun to fall into the ranks of the Alumnae. Let 1914, 1919, 1923 establish a new record for old girls returning to Sweet Briar.

In September the College assisted by the Alumnae put on an exhibit for Sweet Briar in the Southern Woman's Educational Alliance Exposition in New York City. The object of this display was to show the work of the Southern Woman's Colleges and interest visitors in each college. Here a hostess from each college presided over the exhibit and told the good points of her college to prospective college students. We were fortunate in having Eleanor Smith, Florence Freeman Fowler, Dorothy Harrison, Marina Stiles and Mary Reed help at our exhibit. The Alumnae feel well repaid for their efforts because of the good publicity of this exhibit.

At Sweet Briar the students are conducting a great drive for funds for a gymnasium and little theatre building. In June over $10,000.00 had been raised and their work was splendid. No doubt all of you have received pamphlets regarding magazine subscriptions. This is an excellent way to secure funds, so let us all help in any way we can. I beg that each one of you support the present students as the Alumnae helped the students of 1914 in their first efforts for an Endowment Fund so that a new gymnasium will be erected. If each chapter would set a certain amount as their goal and would really work to secure it, the new building wouldn't be such a far distant dream and that chapter would become a real, active, living Sweet Briar center.

Trusting that each Alumna will work for her College and Association more zealously than ever

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET McVEY, President.

TO THE ALUMNAE AND FORMER STUDENTS OF SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE

In my message of last year to the Alumnae I said in closing "once more the college finds itself at another point of vantage; we must seize our opportunities." Today I wish to tell you of the present gratifying condition of Sweet Briar.

Certainly none of us considers numbers the only or even the best criterion of progress, but increasing numbers is one measure of prosperity. Today Sweet Briar has enrolled 367students, a gain of 49 from the registration of last year. Those of you who remember the crowded condition of the dormitories for several years past will wonder where these students are living. In June it became obvious that heavy pressure would be brought to bear for admittance to the college; the Directors decided, therefore, to build a house for our waitresses. The lower floor of Randolph was then transformed into a series of small but attractive suites. There we housed 17 girls; 9 have rooms at the Inn, 9 at the Walkers, and a few at Amherst. The auditorium, however, and the refectory are crowded beyond the point of comfort. As I said to you last year, we must have more dormitory and academic space.

The building for the waitresses, which we shall name Hill House in honor of Octavia Hill, a distinguished woman, the first who was deeply interested in better housing for poor people, is placed just behind the refectory and is not only convenient but has considerable beauty. You will be glad to know that it contains not only rooms but a dining room, living room, and small infirmary. For the first time we need not be ashamed of the housing of the girls who serve us faithfully in the dining room.

Our freshman class numbers 157 well prepared students. The spirit of this class and indeed of the whole college is excellent. The honor system of student government inaugurated two years ago is working out most satisfactorily. The removal of annoying small penalties and the reliance upon the honor of the individual student gives an increasing sense of dignity and responsibility to the student body.

Most of you will have seen that the star has been removed from the name of Sweet Briar College on the list of the American Association of University Women. All graduates, therefore, of Sweet Briar, from the first class, are now eligible to full membership in the Association, and all college students who were in the college for at least one year are eligible to associate membership. The Association of University Women is a powerful and valuable factor in higher education. It is not only national but inter-national in scope. The National Club House in Washington offers delightful residence and social advantages to women and also exchange facilities to the college club houses in England and in France. Before the action of the Association at the Portland meeting during the past summer, only Sweet Briar graduates and college students since 1920 were eligible. It is hoped now that many of our students will take advantage of this opportunity to join the Association.

Altogether I think the Alumnae may feel an ever increasing pride in their Alma Mater.

EMILIE W. McVEA.

FINALS, 1923

Why didn't more of you come back for commencement? About twenty Alumnae did, and unless they were putting up some kind of a bluff, they were well repaid for the trip. A four-day sojourn at S. B. with your old playmates can fill you more full of gossip than any other guaranteed trip known.

You began gathering and dispersing "the dirt" at the Alumnae luncheon. This affair was a new feature for some of us and was held in the tea-room of the new Boxwood Inn, thus smiting one with novelty from start to finish. Miss Morenus, Bertha Pfister Wales, and Janetta Fitzhugh Evans were the moving spirits and the committee in charge. Janetta unfortunately developed measles, or some such infantile complaint and at the last minute was unable to attend. The other two promoters, however, proved quite sufficient to the occasion and, although Saturday, June 2 was unconscionably hot, the Alumnae luncheon was a decided success. We hope they plan for one next year.

Lake Day was held in the fall last year, so there was nothing to conflict with the Senior garden party at four o'clock Saturday afternoon. Once more (the styles permitting) frilly skirts trailed across the grass of the old rose garden and picture hats added to the beauty of a scene always famed for loveliness. The usual cakes and punch proved as acceptable as usual and the usual conversation and merriment prevailed.

After the lighter refreshments of the afternoon the students and guests partook of an outdoor supper served on the campus up near the wind-break. The Rotarians, the Kiwanians, the Lions—all of them that Lynchburg afforded came out for supper and the play. They, together with a large pot of Brunswick stew contributed greatly to the picnicky nature of the occasion.

Saturday night Sweet Briar's dramatic talent and Mr. Dempster's directing scored another triumph in "Behind a Watteau Picture", a fantasy in verse, which has had considerable success in New York. Surely the original production could not have been more exquisite in setting and subtle in execution than the performance witnessed in Sweet Briar gardens. Mr. Dempster himself interpreted the character of the Melancholy Pierrott and Celia Marshall admirably played the opposite lead in the role of Columbine.

Dr. Howard Melish preached the Baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning. Dr. Melish had visited the college before and the service was made particularly enjoyable for those of us who had the pleasure of hearing a former friend as well as a charming and forceful speaker, in whose address the spiritual and the practical were so admirably combined.

Step-singing this year was threatened only by showers from the eyes of the emotional participants. Even the dignity of cap and gown failed to prop up Seniors and though they sang bravely and made light of their woeful feelings, they gave themselves away by occasional gulps and weepy countenances. The Alumnae, in addition to the regular "The Alumne'll Come Rolling Along" had two new and original songs and felt very noisy indeed. However, in the general excitement one of our choice selections was forgotten so only one was rendered, but that right nobly. The singing this year appeared on the whole to be more tuneful than it has been ordinarily and to be made up far more of melody than of shouts and yells. Still it retained its pep and originality. We who are always proclaiming the superiority of "ye good olde days" must admit a decided improvement in the long-loved activity known as step-singing.

Immediately after step-singing the assembled multitude adjourned to the Boxwood Circle for the last vesper service. There was a peace and a beauty in this out-of-door evening service that crept deep into one's heart—a peace and beauty not found every day in the ordinary world. President McVea conducted the service and gave it the simple dignity with which she can so notably invest an occasion.

The Alumnae meeting at ten o'clock was the first event of Monday morning. There was the usual delay incident to rounding up the stragglers and the usual difficulty of quieting those who must read their mail or spread the last bit of gossip. However, the preliminaries were finally accomplished and the business was transacted according to the account rendered in the minutes.

The college luncheon for the graduates and guests was set forth on the lawn by Sweet Briar House and every one observed seemed to display collegiate appetites and a keen appreciation of the good things cast their way.

The luncheon was followed by Class Day exercises. The Sophomores had a gift for each Senior—some very telling trifle with a verse attached which left no doubt as to the particular Senior's outstanding peculiarity, hobby, or what not. What one did not discover there was revealed at the yawning grave where the pet peeves were buried. Among other things disposed of in their last will and testament the class of 1923 left the college a beautiful sun-dial, which has been placed in the center of the Boxwood Circle—an added bit of enchantment for the already charming spot.

Monday night was featured by a recital of Harrison Christian, baritone. To you who have hopped the Saturday night hops in the gym with the artist in question—can you beat it? One felt quite a tremor of pride to remember having danced with this perfectly poised young man who sang everything from the "Toreador Song" to negro spirituals in such a gorgeous voice and with such dramatic intensity. Elsie Wood was to have had several piano numbers on the programme, but she had sprained her wrist and we were deprived of the treat which her playing has always proved to be.

The bon-fire was lighted a bit earlier than usual. You see there was no use waiting until "after lights" —there ain't no sich animal no more. The Seniors filed out in a shuddering line and since there were about twice as many of them as there were Alums it was quite gratifying to see them shiver so. They were made to perform in groups and were cast largely on their own resources. This gave them courage and even made a few of them unduly bold. Prompt squelching was administered, as the Alumnae felt it very necessary to maintain their prestige and a large part of the college personnel had gathered on the terrace to see what sort of hair-raising performance was going forward. After reasonable assurance that the Seniors were duly impressed with Alumnae importance, they were allowed to seek their downy couches and beauty sleep to bear them through the ordeal of graduation.

Commencement morning was just as hot as commencement mornings will be. One had to be very proud of one's dip to be willing to swelter in a cap and gown for the duration of the exercises, excellent though they were. The list of graduates was even longer than in 1922, with five candidates for the B.S. degree and thirty-five for the B.A. Dr. Melish, who preached the Baccalaureate sermon made the commencement address, also. It was worthy of note that he was a sufficiently able speaker to hold his audience and make them unmindful of the June heat. But one must forget the weather and be willing to make the sacrifice of stinging palms when there are forty graduates to applaud. Come and join the enthusiastic clappers next year. Your Alma Mater offers you more every year, whether you are a student or whether you have reached the advanced, but regrettable stage when you are only allowed to return for visits.

REUNIONS!

1914—You are expected to live up to the prestige accorded to the oldest class back for reunions. Remember that it is only the fourth year that Sweet Briar has been able to boast of a ten year reunion. You will be persons of great importance on the campus and your welcome will be very warm indeed.

1919—You have had five years in which to adventure in the world. You must have done some rather interesting things in that time. Come back and recount your experiences. You know you enjoy doing it and you'll enjoy listening to those of your old classmates.

1923—You, I hope will be more enthusiastic over your first reunion than 1922 was. Let it never again be known in the annals of Alumnae association that a class of approximately forty sent back only two members to the first year reunion. You may be busy, but you "can't leave Sweet Briar very long!"

Miscellany—Whether you have a class reunion or whether you have a class come to Sweet Briar in June and discover all over again what a wonderful place your Alma Mater is. The Sweet Briar spirit reaches all over the country and lives in every Alumnae. Is it a mistake to say that it lives in you?

ALUMNAE SONG

Tune—"Field Artillery March"

When the end of the year
And commencement time is here
  Then the Alumnae come rolling along.
We leave all else behind
For the crowd we know we'll find,
  And to Sweet Briar come rolling along!
We can't forget our good old college days,
  We can't leave Sweet Briar very long,
So when things get gay
You will hear the people say
  The Alumnae'll be rolling along!
We have all had our day

And our hair is turning gray,
  But we still keep on rolling along!
We can't dance in the style,
*And our skirts hike up a mile,
  But we still keep on rolling along!
We're not spring chicks and we date from nineteen-six,
  Our cracked old throats can hardly sing this song,
But, when things get gay
You will hear the people say,
  The Alumnae'll come rolling along!

*Line reads as above or—"Skirts hang down a mile." Depends on fashion, don't-you-know.

Alumnae will be interested to hear of the change in Deans at the college. We hear of the resignation of Dean Lummis with profound regret, but we congratulate the college on its good fortune in being able to secure such an able successor as Dean Emily Dutton. Dr. Dutton comes to Sweet Briar from the University of Tennessee and has been a prominent figure in the educational world, not only of the South but of the whole country. Aside from holding an important position in the American Association of University Women and being in touch with present day college life at so many points, Dr. Dutton is an authority on the classics and is the author of several well known works on classical subjects. Moreover she is a delightful speaker and a woman of charming personality.

Familiar faces that will be missing among the faculty this year are those of Dr. Stone, Mr. Nierman, Dr. Howland, and Mlle. Malet, and Miss Elsie Carrington.

The Alumnae who have had the pleasure of witnessing the excellent dramatic performances at Sweet Briar during the past three years will learn with particular distress of the death of Mr. Robert Dempster. Mr. Dempster died suddenly on his way to Sweet Briar to take up his work as Dramatic coach and instructor. The college will feel keenly the loss of Mr. Dempster who, as well as being excellent in the position he held, was also a sincere and interested friend of the institution.

We have not had much direct news of athletic doings this year, but this much has filtered through—Sweet Briar beat Westhampton in hockey! Victory again after two defeats.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthington are the owners and conductors of a summer camp in West Virginia which we hear is growing and flourishing more and more each year.

THE STUDENT DRIVE.

Sweet Briar has long felt the lack of proper gymnasium and dramatic facilities and the need for an indoor swimming pool. Realizing this, the executive committees of the dramatic and athletic organizations instigated on May 4, 1923 a drive for $120,000.00 to erect a building containing a gymnasium, swimming pool and a little theatre. When the plan was presented to the student body great enthusiasm was displayed and every girl pledged herself to support it to the utmost.

An executive committee was immediately appointed with Miss Frances Engeman as chairman and Miss Eleanor Harned, secretary. Many of the girls pledged amounts to be obtained during the summer months, but the activities during this time were of necessity on a rather smaller scale. A more concentrated effort is being made this fall, as the organization is now well under way and according to the present plans, the Committee expects to obtain sufficient funds to start the erection of the building early next spring.

We have been aided immensely by the Advisory committee composed of President McVea and Dr. McDougle, who have cooperated in every way possible. The trustees of the college also gave the plan their unanimous endorsement.

The Committee hopes for great results from the Ten-Ten-Ten Drive, which was opened November 12 and closed December 19. Each girl in college is to obtain ten dollars from ten different people and each alumnae, as her opportunities are greater will be asked to find ten people who will contribute one hundred dollars. Various cities have been assigned quotas—New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, $25,000.00; Cincinnati, $15,000.00; and Richmond and Chicago, $5,000.00.

The results so far have been most encouraging. Every student and alumna realizes how essential to Sweet Briar such a building is and is looking forward optimistically to the fulfillment of the plans in the very near future.

SWEET BRIAR DAY

December 28 is still the date of Sweet Briar Day. As the handbook wlll be at press at that time no assistance can be had from it in arranging your plans for the observance of the great occasion. However, Sweet Briar Day should be widely known by now and the chairmen who were appointed for 1923 should be able to make a great success of the day—that is if they meet with the proper cooperation. In case the chairmen themselves have failed to act, we ask you to investigate and discover the reason why Sweet Briar Day was not observed in your community. We know you are interested in renewing your ties with your Alma Mater and we are counting on you to hold the Association together. Your town and its chairman will be found on the list below, so you can see if you were scheduled to be among the chapters meeting on December 28. Chairmen were named only for the fifty largest centers, but don't let that stop you. If you feel that you are being done out of something—go right ahead and plan a Sweet Briar Day celebration for your town. The more the merrier!

Please report the results of Sweet Briar Day in your community. We won't be able to print all the reports, but we do want to know how the plan is working and what the Association may expect as the result of the nation-wide gatherings. For example—

New York has already reported that at the time when it was visited by the representatives of the Student Building Drive the chapter was revived, officers were elected and plans made not only for Sweet Briar Day, but also for a campaign to assist the students in their efforts to raise the money for the new gym and little theatre. On Sweet Briar Day, December 28, a bridge party will be held at the Biltmore Hotel and the proceeds will be turned over to the Student Drive. We commend New York on its plan to combine celebration with activity.

Richmond reports plans for a concert by the Yale Glee Club on Christmas Eve and a luncheon-meeting on Sweet Briar Day.

Cincinnati writes that they have raised $200.00 with a card party given during the fall. When the letter reached them about Sweet Briar Day they replied that they had made their plans long ago. What does Sweet Briar Day mean to you?

Chairmen of Sweet Briar Day
